

HOBOKEN POLICE STOP PARADE OF RESERVISTS

Chief of Police Hayes of Hoboken revoked to-day the permits issued to the German reservists awaiting shipment there to parade the streets. These impatient patriots have been keeping Hoboken streets alive with their cheering and singing for several nights. Chief Hayes said he regarded the parades as harmless in themselves and their actions as a healthy outlet for pent up emotions, but he feared that racial antagonisms might be aroused which would lead to disorder.

KAISER TO LOSE ONE OF HIS RESERVISTS

One German reservist who is anxious to go back and fight for the Kaiser must languish here for an indefinite period. He is Joseph Berger, who was arraigned in Harlem police court to-day on a charge of grand larceny. It will be some time before Joseph is a free agent.

On July 29 Berger, who had been personal attendant to Joseph Gottschalk, a paralytic living at No. 34 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, disappeared from the Gottschalk home contemporaneously with the disappearance of $120 and jewelry. Detective Edward Conroy arrested him last night in the Mills Hotel at Thirty-sixth street and Seventh avenue. Berger had in his pocket a watch chain taken from Mr. Gottschalk.

As a member of the Second Reservists Berger registered on Monday with the German Consul for service with his old regiment, the Ninth Erlangen Infantry. No more enthusiastic reservist was there about the Consul than Berger. He claimed to be sent to Germany at once. But the law stepped in and the Kaiser is shy one soldier.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
